Homebound Ministry

The ministry for the home bound has seen tremendous growth both in terms of those needing to be visited and those who are willing to visit. Do you know someone who is unable to attend Mass, but would like to receive holy communion? Are you someone who would enjoy taking communion to a shut-in? If you answered "yes" to either one of those questions, then please contact Carolyn Gardner (kncgardner@gmail.com) or Rob Murray (adultfaith@stjoeup.org).

Spotlight on Lectors

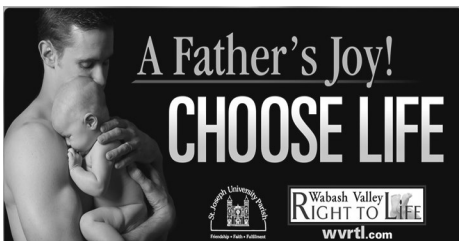

This weekend's "Spotlight on Ministry" highlights our Lectors. Our lectors serve the congregation by preparing and proclaiming the scripture each weekend. They practice the readings so that all may hear and understand God's messages. They love to look out and see attentive, enthused SJUP parishioners. If you are interested in volunteering for this ministry, please contact Judy Stoffel at (812) 243-1978.

Quiet Bags

In the back of church by the Religious Education bulletin board are "quiet bags" for children 2 - 6 years of age. These bags have activities that will help a child stay quiet during Mass and participate more fully. Anyone is welcome to use a bag, but please return it to the back of church after mass in the order that it was found. Thank you!

Our Billboard

Thank you to all who contributed to the Wabash Valley Right to Life billboard the weekend of Jan 7/8. We raised $502. Our SJUP billboard will be at a highway location, the junction of 41 North & 63 North. It went up on Jan 20 and will stay up for 4 weeks (or longer if space is not purchased). All votes were cast and the winner was:
